

Fourth Grade Summer Reading

Welcome to Fourth Grade!

The fourth grade teachers are looking forward to meeting you in September. One of the first authors we will be studying in Literacy is Judy Blume. She has written a variety of picture books, chapter books, and novels for children of various ages. This summer we would like students to select one of the Judy Blume books listed below to read and enjoy. During the first week of school, we will be creating "Character Backpacks" to share what we have learned about our favorite Judy Blume characters.
